

Weigh It Out

A private space to think through a decision, one question at a time.

You don't need to have it all figured out before you start. Answer what you can, skip what doesn't fit yet, and come back to it. Clarity tends to show up in the writing, not before it.

1 What's the decision?

What is the decision you need to make, and what are the options you're considering?

2 What's driving the urgency?

What thoughts are making this decision feel difficult or urgent?

What evidence supports those thoughts, and what evidence might challenge them?

3 Facts versus fears

If you could separate facts from fears, what do you actually know about the situation?

4 Picture the outcome

Imagine you've made the decision that feels right for you. What would be different in your life a few weeks or months from now?

5 Which option fits?

Which option moves you closer to that preferred future, even if it feels uncomfortable right now?

6 How confident are you?

On a scale of 0 to 10, how confident are you that you can handle the consequences of that choice? Circle a number.
